May it please the Court, please consider scheduling this case for oral argument for the following reasons:

- Complicated Factual or Legal Issue: The factual or legal issues presented in this case suggest that an oral argument, with the Court and counsel communicating together, will greatly benefit this litigant but also preserve judicial economy. Specifically,
_____.
- A potential procedural error requires immediate attention and/or the exceptions or appellate process could be avoided or the process for the same must be clarified; and thus, the opportunity for oral argument will assist both the Court and counsel;
- Confidential issues that affect either the Court (recusal, conflict, etc.) or counsel (potential disciplinary action, conflict, etc.) should be addressed in a non-record proceeding first, order for the case to proceed forward and/or to avoid release of confidential information;
OR
- Potential for serious injury to a child or party is at issue in the matter and either the PFA statute is not applicable or does not benefit the underlying matter or the laws pertaining to exclusive possession will not remedy the matter in a sufficiently expedited fashion.
