

RULE 114.1 LEGAL ADVERTISING

(a) In all actions, proceedings, or other matters, where by law or Rule of Court, notice is required to be given by advertisement in a newspaper, such publication shall be in a newspaper of general circulation in Allegheny County and proof of publication shall be on the affidavit of the publisher or the agent of the publisher, filed of record before the entry of final order, decree or judgment.

(b) The daily edition of the Pittsburgh Legal Journal is designated as the legal newspaper of the Court for the publication of legal notices. All advertisements or notices required by law or Rule of Court to be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation shall also be advertised in the Pittsburgh Legal Journal daily edition, unless dispensed with by an order of the Court filed of record.
