Requests to change the date, time or place of a hearing are not usually granted. To make such a request, the requestor must file a written document called a motion with the Court. Information about how to file a motion can be found in the Children's Court Manual (www.alleghecourts.us/family/CourtManual/Children.aspx). If a motion to change the date, time or place of a hearing is granted, the requestor must give a copy of the Order that reschedules the hearing to all parties. Requestor must also complete a Certificate of Service for each party, which must be given to the Court at the time of the rescheduled hearing.
